AMERICAN COLLEGE OF NURSE PRACTITIONERS

ACNP Student Scholarship Award Nominations due by July 12, 2010

The American College of Nurse Practitioners (ACNP) sponsors an annual student scholarship recognizing an individual nurse practitioner student who has made an outstanding contribution to the profession through his/her studies and activities in their community and in the nurse practitioner field.

Scholarship Details

The recipient will receive a one-year's membership in ACNP and $1000 scholarship. The Award will be presented at the ACNP Annual National Clinical Conference in Tampa, FL, October 20-24, 2010. The recipient will also receive a complimentary registration to the Clinical Conference and a maximum of $750 to defer travel and lodging expenses.

Criteria for Nomination:

- Proof of membership in ACNP
- Proof of enrollment in an accredited NP program
- 2 letters of support from professional colleagues
- Evidence of a 3.4 or higher grade point average
- Evidence of distinction in any of the following areas:
 - a) Participation in a regional, state, or national professional organization
 - b) Promotion of the role of the nurse practitioner through a research project
 - c) Participation in legislative and policy-making activities at the local, state, or national level
 - d) Participation in community service.

The applicant will complete an application and submit all materials by July 12, 2010. The Awards Subcommittee reviews the submissions, with a recommendation made to the Membership Committee and final approval by the Board of Directors. The award winner will be notified in early August annually and they should plan to be present during the Annual ACNP National Clinical Conference to receive recognition.
